A NEGRO APPREHENDED.

He Answers Slightly the Description of Miss Darter's Assailant. Yesterday afternoon a man walked into police headquarters and in a confidential manner told Captain Dawson that the negro who assaulted Miss Dorothy Darter, living north of Irvington, in February last, was asleep under a tree at State and Washington streets. Bicycle Policemen Streit and Losh were sent out after him. They found a negro, who claimed to be Albert Parker. He said he had been here about seven months, and had worked until a few weeks ago af the Law building as janitor. He gave his address as No. 827 Darnell street and said he had lived in several other places, but was unable to tell of anyone he knew. On him the officers found a huge knife and a razor. He was sent to headquarters and charged with carrying concealed weapons. Before calling the wagon the negro exhibited signs of nervousness and asked that the officers telephone somewhere and find out about him. He could tell them of no one to whom they could telephone. He re-sembles in several respects the negro described by Miss Darter more than any of the suspects taken before her. She will be asked this morning to come to the police station and see if he is the man, although the police have little hope that she will be able to identify him.

NEW YORK, June 11 .- A dispatch to the World from St. Petersburg gives additional information regarding the attempts of Senator Beveridge to secure from the Russian foreign ministry concessions for steamship service between Vladivostock or Port Arthur and some port on the Pacific coast of the United States and the plans of the Russians in this connection. He found the Russian government already prepared to open up this route by starting a line of steamers between Vladivostock and San Francisco, for carrying the transpacific mail in connection with the Transsiberian Railway, which will be completed by the end of this year, it is thought. The other day he stood gazing at the yellow strip of sunlit Mediterannean, and, turning with a sigh to his nephew, the Pontiff used for the first time since his "imprisonment" a phrase which might have been construed as impatience at his "captivity." "Ah," he said, 'how I wish I could go to sea again. It would really renew my youth. The last time I really stayed at sea was about fifty-five years ago, when I was nuncio at Brussels. BRITAIN'S TRADE RIVALS.

Speech by Admiral Seymour at the China Association Banquet. SHANGHAI, June 11 .- Admiral Sir Edward H. Seymour, British commander-inchief on the China station, was the principal guest of the China Association, at its annual banquet last evening. In the course of a speech protesting against policy of trade exclusion, the admiral said Great Britain had three powerful rivals -- the United States, Russia and Germany. Of the three, the United States was the greatest of her trade rivals, but the rivalry was not in conflict with Great Britain's policy of the open door. Germany was a keen competitor both as regards trade and sea power. Great Brit- elected Speaker Albertson. TARRY THOU TILL I COME

Or Salathiel, the Wandering Jew

By GEORGE CROLY

A GREAT HISTORICAL ROMANCE Introduction by GEN. LEW WALLACE.

Gen. Lew Wallace (author of Ben Hur) says (Sept., 1900): "In my judgment the six greatest English novels are Ivanhoe, The Last of the Barons, The Tale of Two Cities, Jane Eyre, Hypatia and this romance of Croly's. If Shakespeare had never been born; if Mil ton, Byron and Tennyson were singers yet to be, and Bacon, Darwin and Ruskin unknown; . . . still, the six works named would of themselves suffice to constitute a

20 Full-page Illustrations by T. de Thulstrup

With a beautiful frontispiece in colors, sixteen full-page drawings, and three illustrated bastard title pages, all by this famous artist. It is over one year since Mr. de Thulstrup began his preparations for this work, sparing neither time nor labor, spending many months in Europe in the study of the details necessary to perfect the pictures. He has most wonderfully portrayed the stirring dramatic scenes of the story. The novel deals with the momentous events that occurred, chiefly in Palestine, from the time of the crucifixion to the destruction of Jerusalem. It reveals the struggies be tween the Romans and the Jews, which finally ended in the overthrow and the disper sion of the Jewish nation, picturing forth the conflict between Judaism and early Christianity. The story is replete with Oriental charm and richness, and the character-draw-

Ohnet's Latest Novel

IN DEEP ABYSS

(By GEORGES OHNET, Translated by Fred Rothwell, B.A.)

Author of "The Ironmaster," "Dr. Rameau," "Antoinette," "Love's Depths," etc. An absorbing novel of love and intrigue. The scenes are laid in Paris, London, San Francisco and elsewhere. Most of the characters are typical of French life, gay and grave. A principle is enunciated at the beginning of the book; the fallibility of human judgment even in those whose profession it is to pass sentence and who are consequently in position to boast of special experiences"-thus the possibility of legal error. The plot of the story reveals a sensational instance of such legal error, and the reader is taken through many stirring events, and made to share in many strong emotions. The thousands who have read Georges Ohnet's famous novel, "The Ironmaster," or any of his other books, will appreciate the treat provided in this, his latest novel. 12mo., Cloth, 421 Pages. Half-tone Frontispiece. Price, $1.20, net. Postage, 13 cents.
